What is your best memory of the IFPM3?	Votes
Great organization	13
How lovely you designed the gathertown landscape! (there is even a tent in the forest...)	5
3 Minute Thesis Competition	5
Meeting friends in gathertown	3
Discussing interesting topic with other colleagues which is very excited	3
Gathertown really seems to work quite well, particularly for guys comfortable with older computer games, like GTA.	2
Freiburg Team set a NEW standard for virtual meetings including 3min Phd presentations and gathering spaces - so cool - a big THANK YOU :-)	1
Freiburg team organized a great event and approached it creatively	0
One (1) best memory only? Difficult .... Thank you!	0
High quality paper presentations, interesting discussions	0

A bit more time to breathe, as listening to presentations over zoom is more taxing than at a live event... --> Three days?	3
some more time to discuss and meet in gathertown	2
The chat was used quite often to give further comments, point to papers etc, but not sure whether all this can still be accessed afterwards?	2
all the possibilities for online interaction like for example writing feedback here requires time, so maybe breaks need to be longer?	2
Certainly more time between sections and lunch break. I agree with previous point that zoom requires more concentration	1

Ideas for the next conference	Votes
Maybe a three day event as there had been many great papers and more roundtables mixed with paper sessions would me nice?	4
include diverse formats such as roundtables, BOS etc. in oder to encourage participation and discussions	2

combine the virtual with the non-virtual as scholars from outside Europe or in difficult economic situations could also participate	2
let's find a way to celebrate together! relax and get to know each other's jokes (good or bad)	1
Agree with a longer, 3 day event! In addition academic benefits, this rhymes well with more benefit per emitted carbon.	1
