Children's Puppet Show	0
Parachute Drops.  Not for people!  We used to do this for kids teddies from a kite but we do have a launch tower.	0
Send the badges that they earn to the "Edge of Space" perhaps on the weather balloon? it might also be possible to "Fake" that the badges have been to space if we can't do a payload idea of some sort.	0
Escape room based on Space or the Martian....	0
Participants could build a suitable lander from pioneering poles, oxygen cylinders could be moved across dangerous chasms, Space boots (wellies) could be flung across lakes of frozen methane (most popular activity at several camps), Everything could be based on a red or sandy theme.....etc . Using remote controlled devices to undertake tasks like soil samples etc The food could all be space rations packs too!!!!	0

could we arrange to send all the badges to the edge of space before the camp or maybe one per Group...just a thought...	0
Star Gazing session one night, in a no torches area? Perhaps project onto screen in a blackout tent rather than have queues?	0
