

Interpreter Day 1 homework

Homework debrief

What should be included in an introduction?	Votes
In an introduction its important to know each others names and what will be adressed in the conversation. it is important to know the cultu	0
the name , position and specify what I am going to do. is important mention that whatever they said will be confidential.	0

What questions came up during the sight translation activity?	Votes
--	--------------

What interesting nuggets did you discover when exploring your resource toolkit?	Votes
I learned about tips when families visits are planned. also I noticed about other organizations, like office of special education programs,.	2