TELI Collaborative Team Input

When I think about launching my TELI team, I wonder...	Votes
How many goals should we set? How to measure the need and accomplishments.	1
What are you thinking about?	0
If we have the capacity to accomplish our goals	0
what participation and commitment will look like from partners.	0
il wonder if other programs within my Tribe will see the benefit of collaborating (and therefore commit time to the project)	0
If our partners will be as excited as we are!	0
if some of our partners will commit fully and understand the needs of ECE as a system.	0
everyone's availability to meet with each other	0
How often the team needs to meet.	0
if they will understand the need for the collaboration	0

TELI will be a meaningful experience for me if...	Votes
How will you experience be meaningful	0
growth in partnerships	0
Learning about our partners.	0
....we build relationships and keep the children at the center of what we do	0
there is a clear picture painted for the families of the community	0
there is equal investment from early childhood partners	0
To provide more services and provide positive outcomes for our families.	0
Are able to provide our vision for all team members to be excited and willing to particpate.	0
We can get partners excited and thinking of collaboration in different ways to positively impact the outcomes of children and families	0
if partners can identify common goals to guide the work.	0
