

Career Planning for Graduation and Beyond April

Exit Tickets

Three things I learned about today	Votes
Great job. The presentations were awesome	2
Some how tos that will help me support our CTE partners to reach a 4-star BAC.	0
Repair Kit for Grades	0
using Career Readiness aptitude tests and gathering information on student interests are important.	0
The amazon process	0
navigator application	0
Families of students who are at-risk of not graduating should be informed annually.	0
The literacy initiatives at the Career tech level.	0
Review of requirements needed for graduation	0

Two things I want to learn more or have a question about	Votes
applying career prep to middle school	0
I want to share out the website for other to see some of the great practices that are occurring throughout the state	0
How are districts informing families of at-risk students who are endanger of not graduating. What does that process look like?	0

One idea I'm going to use or tweak to try in my school	Votes
Sharing the Retail Arbitrage process with others and how to incorporate a similar process for SWD.	0
Embed driver's ed into a Life Skills course.	0
How to have ELA instructor support lab instructor for vocabulary and writing activities	0