

ISTE 2024 - Building Community

What are some strategies you use to build community with students' families?

What are some strategies you use to build community with students' families?	Votes
Team 13 Host parent nights to showcase what we are doing in the counseling department and college/career. Regular newsletters from counseling department	1
Team 8- Create spaces and time for conversations. Model openness with communication. CARE! Show it!	1
Team 11-Invite families to school for events or every day activities, fall open houses, questionnaires or surveys for caregiver input, orien	0
Team 4 parent breakfast, weekly newsletters, Instagram to share classroom happenings & communication, quarterly family events, reading buddy	0
-host big open house -game nights with families Quarterly -Game Day -partnerships with local community organizations for service days -1 volunteer hour a year -monthly coffee with the principal -Parent seminars on topics that parents wanted have asked for/suggested	0
Team 1	0
Team 7: For family-BOY get together (Ice Cream Social), monthly events (STEAM night, Math night), in classroom (Holiday parties, showcases)	0
Team 14- Special event nights. Consistency of communication. Opportunities for stakeholder engagement. Connect to the community's culture.	0
9 - student conferences social media stories advisory program attend student events (at school and outside of school) school events - GP day	0
Team 3.- Design opportunities for children and parents to talk, share and get feedback about specific things, topics and activities.	0

Team 15 In our schools they have Coffee Cat (Wildcats is our mascot). Where parents are invited to drink coffee and break bread with school leaders and current information, services provided in our school, and upcoming events are shared with parents. They participate in raffles and small gifts like tshirts, mugs, etc parents can win by answering questions of things they learn in this community workshops. I'm also a board member at a k-8 district in my community and they have a similar concept and they call it Pan and Cafecito.	0
TEAM 7: Classroom - morning meetings, SEL curriculum\	0
TABLE #10: VIS implements Treat Trolley every Friday. Along with Blue Jean Wednesday for $1 and Free Blue Jean Fridays every week.	0